

Press release

Dr. Nadine Galandi and Dr. Dirk Scholl bolster GARBE Institutional Capital's Science & Tech expertise

Hamburg, 28 September 2022. GARBE Institutional Capital is strengthening its expertise in Science & Technology Real Estate with the addition of Senior Advisors Dr. Nadine Galandi and Dr. Dirk Scholl. Both are proven specialists within the life science and healthcare areas and will support GARBE Institutional Capital as expert advisors for the development of strategies and concepts for the company's pan-European Science & Tech platform. Both will work closely with the team led by Managing Director Dr. Thomas Kallenbrunnen and Senior Investment and Fund Manager Remco van der Mije.

Dr. Nadine Galandi (43), a doctor of biochemistry, is currently senior director in the life sciences team at Capgemini Invest. She has previously served the life science and healthcare sector in various positions, including as director and head of digital solutions at Bode Chemie GmbH, a company of the Hartmann Group, and as senior manager and director at Deloitte Consulting.

Dr. Dirk Scholl (49), a medical doctor, is an independent consultant to companies and start-ups in the fields of life sciences and biotechnology, particularly laboratory and medical technology. Among his wide-ranging activities, he supports his clients in M&A processes, financial planning and acquisition due diligence. Dr. Dirk Scholl previously worked for eight years as commercial director of Dynamic Biosensors GmbH, a spin-off from the Technical University of Munich. In addition to his M.D. degree (University of Heidelberg and Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota), he also holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

"A deep understanding of the users and their needs is essential in Science & Technology Real Estate," says Remco van der Mije. "Dr. Nadine Galandi and Dr. Dirk Scholl are deeply rooted in their fields of expertise and speak the language of our target group. Together, we will develop tailor-made solutions for our users, thus benefitting our investors."

"We are firmly convinced that science and technology companies will decisively shape the future of our society in the coming decade," adds Thomas Kallenbrunnen, Managing Director of GARBE Institutional Capital. "With expert advisors like Dr. Nadine Galandi and Dr. Dirk Scholl, we are deeply embedded in this sector. Having in-house experience like this is a key prerequisite for anticipating the needs of our users and driving the growth of our fund platform."

Press release

End of press release

About GARBE Institutional Capital

GARBE Institutional Capital GmbH is a vertically fully integrated investment and development platform. The company invests in mature and emerging real estate markets across Europe. GARBE Institutional Capital builds bridges between institutional investors and long-term real estate values. For in-depth value creation, the company relies on its active asset management approach as well as its property management, development and refurbishment expertise. The firm offers its institutional partners access to investment opportunities including regulated real estate funds, club deals and separate accounts.

GARBE Institutional Capital has local expert teams based in Hamburg, Frankfurt am Main, Cologne, Amsterdam, Milan, Prague, London and Madrid. As of 31 December 2021, it managed properties and fund assets valued over 500 million euros.

GARBE Institutional Capital is part of GARBE, a family-run real estate company based in Germany, with more than 300 employees across 16 offices in ten countries.

www.garbe-institutional.de

Press contact

Feldhoff & Cie. GmbH
Daniel Gabel
mobile: +49 152 21 90 33 48
e-mail: dg@feldhoff-cie.de